--Summary--

Please replace the paragraph beginning at page 1, line 26, with the following rewritten paragraph:

--According to the present invention therefore, there is provided a tray having a handle portion and a peripheral base surrounding the handle portion to support items placed on the tray, the handle portion protruding upwardly from the peripheral base and comprising a hollow post, the base portion having an aperture in the centre thereof such that the hollow interior of the post is accessible from the underside of the base through said aperture, the post being dimensioned to receive the post of the handle of another corresponding device to enable a plurality of such devices to be stacked together.--

Please replace the paragraph beginning at page 2, line 1, with the following rewritten paragraph:

-- Preferably, the handle portion further comprises a post extending vertically upwards from the centre of the base and a lifting handle located at the top of said post. Advantageously, the top of the post is vertically higher than the top of the wall, and the post preferably tapers inwardly towards its top. ~~Conveniently, the post is hollow.~~--

Please delete the paragraph beginning at page 2, line 7.
